

Our Famous Fish Fry

Worlds

Largest Fish Fry

Family atmosphere is definitely present at Serb Hall. On any given Friday, the Hall serves 1,500 to 2,000 plates of fish. The Hall offers one of Milwaukee's most famous fish frys, so most patrons are after the traditional cod, which comes battered and fried or broiled. There are other choices on the menu as well. The Serb Hall is flanked in tradition and Serbian decoration, yet the experience is truly for everyone. It's been around since the mid 1960s, and many diehards can testify that it has always been both busy and tasty. Little has changed since its founding, and while you can "drive-thru" or do the express carryout, the best choice is to stay and experience the atmosphere. It is a friendly community fixture that draws a crowd from all over. Reservations are recommended.
